Opening 2.3.

Press Preview 2.2.

Location

Green City Experience Center e-Zen

131 Nanseolheon-ro, Chodang-dong, Gangneung, Gangwon-do, S.Korea

○ Gangwon International Biennale, which has attracted a great deal of interest both inside and outside the art world as it reveals its provocative theme of 'The Dictionary of Evil' with the participation of many outstanding artists who have international reputations, opens the exhibition through this press preview.

○ The Organizing Committee of Gangwon International Biennale announced that the press preview for major domestic and foreign media will be held at the Gangneung Green City Experience Center e-Zen on February 2, the day prior to the opening of the Biennale on February 3.

○ In this press preview, the chairman of Gangwon International Art Exhibition & Folk Art Festival Organizing Committee OH Ill-ju, art director HONG Kyoung-han, curators, and some artists from Korea and abroad will be present to introduce the major works wrapped in veils.

○ The organizing committee stated, "We have put our utmost efforts in making full preparation as it happens simultaneously with the international mega-event of the Olympic Winter Games PyeongChang 2018," and explained "From the press preview, a 44-day journey, which will be a new milestone in Korean art and culture, will begin."

○ Meanwhile, Gangwon International Biennale has been attracting attention with its approach to the humanistic-based Olympic spirit of the paradoxical theme of 'The Dictionary of Evil', and has been recognized as the main cultural event of the Winter Olympic Games PyeongChang 2018. The biennale will take place on February 3 until March 18 and will be held around Gangneung Green City Experience Center e-Zen.
